LIVING GOD'S WORD

Advent is a time to enter more deeply into conversation with God. Pray with the words of the psalmist, who encourages us to turn to God, who will make known the way teach us the right paths, and draw us into divine kindness, constancy, and friendship.

(World Library Publications)

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

How do you prepare a heart for Christmas? It is not all that different from how we prepare any room for the season. We move some things out and bring others in: lights, candles, and appropriate decorations. We can also apply this to our hearts, both our individual heart and our community heart. Today four voices offer direction. Jeremiah calls us to remember the God who worked on the house of Israel and Judah, bringing "a just shoot" (Jeremiah 33:15) to flower from the old stump that Israel had become, replacing lifeless leadership with a new branch of the house of David. Justice would flourish for all the people. Jeremiah calls us to trust God's designs that go beyond the surface. Jesus' words, however, seem to contradict all this, predicting signs that will dismay and perplex, with people dying of fright. What happened to security and justice? But all this frightening activity is not for those waiting on the Lord. Jesus' words are strong: Don't cower; stand erect. Don't let your heart sink into sleep, dive into drink, or be corrupted by carousing. Redemption is in the room, a heartbeat away. Paul reminds us that we best renovate our hearts by filling them with God's love for others. We do this by how we treat each other. A new year offers time to bring healing to damaged relationships, to reach out to someone we have neglected. And God works along with us, pouring the Holy Spirit into our hearts. James A. Szczepionki

Mały Katechizm, z którym każdy z ochrzczonych musiał się zapoznać przystępując do 1. Komunii Świętej wymienia trzy cnoty boskie: wiarę, nadzieję i miłość. Zazwyczaj wymienia się je jednym tchem, niewiele zastanawiając się nad tym, co one oznaczają i jakie mają realne miejsce w życiu chrześcijanina. Obecny numer poświęcony jest wierze, zatem najwyższa pora, by cnotę wiary wziąć pod lupę.

Każdy człowiek z natury otwarty jest na poszukiwanie sensu życia, gwaranta sprawiedliwości, kogoś, kto bezwarunkowo kocha. Te pragnienia zostały zaszczerpione przez Boga w każdym człowieku. I to jest właśnie cnota wiary – zaszczerpione przecucie, że nie jesteśmy sami we Wszechświecie, ale że jest w nim Bóg. To ziarenko wiary, które rośnie razem z człowiekiem.

Gdy człowiek dorasta i zaczyna coraz więcej pytać i rozumieć, zaszczerpiona w człowieku cnota wiary podlega konfrontacji z rozumem. Wypadkową są pytania: czy Bóg naprawdę istnieje? Czy to nie fikcja człowieka? Jaki Bóg jest? Skąd na świecie tak wiele różnorodnych religii?

Na „rynku religii” na pierwszy rzut oka równorzędnie koło siebie przedstawiają się Budda, Chrystus i Mahomet – jako założyciele trzech wielkich religii. Kto ma rację? A może żaden z tych trzech wymienionych? Kiedy człowiek staje przed takimi problemami, jest to moment przejścia od wiary zarodkowej – zaszczerpionej w człowieku i przyjętej najczęściej od rodziców do wiary dojrzałej – którą osobiście się wybiera i uznaje za prawdę, mimo że nie jest w stanie ostatecznie udowodnić słuszności wyznawanego poglądu.

Ziarno wiary musi być pielęgnowane – w konfrontacji z tego typu pytaniami wiara się oczyszcza. Nie wolno ich się bać i przed nimi uciekać. Bóg wszczepił w nas zarówno ziarno wiary jak i rozum – jest autorem obu – wszczepił w nas pragnienie poznania prawdy i pragnienie poznania Boga. Przez oba mamy do Niego dążyć. Bóg nie jest irracjonalny i nie stoi w sprzeczności z rozumem. Ostatecznie Jezus mówi o sobie, że sam jest Prawdą – rzetelne poszukiwanie rozumem wiary jak najbardziej naprowadza na prawdziwego Boga.
